

First update of the 2008 Helicopter Monitoring Program

The 2008 NY Bight Helicopter Monitoring Program has begun. Floatable flights will be conducted six days a week. Sampling to support State shellfish programs is scheduled to begin in June.

Floatables:

The New York/New Jersey Harbor Complex was monitored for floatables five times from May 19 to May 23. The Harbor Complex was clear of significant floatable debris on all five days.